

Art in the City....

As in New York, Paris, Berlin or Zurich, you can find in Geneva a district where contemporary galleries are concentrated. Based in the centre of the city, the galleries show fascinating exhibitions for art lovers.

They have the great advantage to be near two strong institutions: the Mamco (Modern Art Museum), the Centre d'art Contemporain Genève and the MEG (ethnographic art & culture museum).

Art day tour in Geneva this Autumn:

Morning

After breakfast have a visit to the expo of the artist Nathan Sawaya "Art of the Brick" in Palexpo (from Oct. 4th 2018 to Jan.y 6th, 2019)

Midday break

Back in the city center, right in the heart of the contemporary art district, have a lunch or brunch at Tiffany!

Afternoon stroll

A few steps away from the Tiffany in the Quartier des Bains and the MAMCO (Modern Art Museum) and/or the MEG

Happy hour

Twice a year, the galleries and museums of the Quartier des Bains host an after-hours evening called La Nuit des Bains. Next event is on October 11, 2018.

If weather is nice walk to the Parc des Bastions and the through the Old Town or along the Rhone River back to the Lake shore and Eastwest Hotel to finish the day with a relaxing drink on the peaceful patio !

.....1/3

The Art of the Brick[®]

Nathan Sawaya

The Art of the Brick arrives this autumn in Geneva !

From the 4th of October 2018 to the 6th of January 2019

A MILLION COLOURED BRICKS to enter the imaginary worlds of Nathan Sawaya, an american artist renowned for his masterful creations in LEGO© bricks. With only coloured bricks he develops imaginary worlds and breaks free from more conventional forms.

One of the most popular toys in the world crashes through the pop culture and invents « The Art of the Brick »- the exhibition of Nathan Sawaya pays tribute to Bob Dylan, Jimi Hendrix and Andy Warhol. With humour, the artist re-interprets and twists classical works such as Mona Lisa, Vermeer's Girl With a Pearl Earring or Venus de Milo...

- > About Nathan Sawaya
- > About the Expo in Geneva

Art Nouveau Gem in the heart of the contemporary art scene

Tiffany Hotel, ideally located on a quiet street right in the heart of Geneva cultural scene and contemporary art district, is the perfect urban hideaway for an arty stay in the city.

In a charming historic building dating from the end of the 19th century, which has been tastefully restored, the hotel is noteworthy for its Art Nouveau style, carried down to the finest detail, creating a unique and intimate venue.

Golden fireflies and porcelain flowers adorn a gracious chandelier hanging in the glass-ceilinged atrium located between the original building and the new addition of the Tiffany Hotel.

The lamp, an original creation by the interior designers Marc Hertrich and Nicolas Adnet, borrows motifs from the Art Nouveau style evoking the atmosphere of a grand villa from the turn of the 20th century.

Enjoying a meal and taking in the neighbourhood

The Tiffany restaurant is located between Geneva's traditional banking area and the Arts district, with its contemporary art galleries and museums.

Fully immersed in the neighbourhood's vibe, here is where these contrasting sectors meet for a coffee, lunch, an afternoon drink or a Sunday brunch, allowing the international traveller to enjoy the area's lively atmosphere.

Locals and visitors alike appreciate the warm and spontaneous welcome from the restaurant's dedicated team. Culinary creativity involving fresh produce prepared in a simple, yet flavourful manner has made a name for this fine establishment.

.....3/3

